

WHAT, WHERE, WHO?

Complete the questions with the words what, where or who. Then, take turns asking and answering the questions with a partner with your own information.

1. Where were you born? I was born in Florida.
2. _____ is your teacher? Marta Jackson
3. _____ time is it? It's 6:00 p.m.
4. _____ is your favorite kind of music? I like classical music.
5. _____ is your favorite singer? Aretha Franklin
6. _____ do you live? I live downtown.
7. _____ is your phone number? 341 - 555 - 2345
8. _____ do you like to talk to? my sister
9. _____ do you like to go on the weekends? to the mountains
10. _____ is your favorite dessert? chocolate cake

NOTES FOR THE TEACHER

What asks about a thing.

Where asks about a place.

Who asks about a person.

Tip: In general, it is not necessary to go into complicated grammar explanations when teaching your student. When working with your student on this topic, we recommend giving them lots of different examples, working on the exercises, and then encouraging them to come up with their own examples using people and situations in their life.

Answer Key:

1. Where
2. Who
3. What
4. What
5. Who
6. Where
7. What
8. Who
9. Where
10. What